PROJECT IMPLEMENTATION COMPETITION
Of Youth Environmental Summit (YES) 2017

Dear Participants of YES2017

Thank you very much for attending the YES2017. We hope that you learned, made friends, and enjoyed! Now is the time to make impact on your community.

As briefly mentioned during the conference, Youth Ambassadors is pleased to announce the "Project Implementation Competition".

We would like you to implement the ideas you conceptualized and presented at the YES 2017. The winner will be invited to the next YES2018. Here are the details

Competition Procedure

Step 1: Competition Entry

Please let us know your intention for the competition entry by 30 April 2016, by sending us email attachment the Competition Entry form (attached in this letter)

Step 3: Implementation and Documentation

- Take the video of your social enterprise project - from preparation, implementation and result. It can include the discussions with your team members, discussion with the stake holders and beneficiaries, doing preparation works, actual implementation, and results (can be interview to the beneficiaries). For example, if you are taking the theme of "quality education for all" and if you are conducting free lesson for the village students, take the video of the sessions. The results can be the students who attended your lessons holding "100 mark" exam paper, etc.
- Edit the video into 5 minutes
- Write a short synopsis on the 1) objective of the project, 2) project content (what you do), 3) beneficiary, 4) current outcome and email do us at enquiry@sgyouthambassadors.org (We understand that the actual result of the project may take time to be achieved. We want to know what is the current outcome), 5) Your plan to follow up the project
- Upload the video to the sgyouthambassadors facebook page and email us that you had done so to: enquiry@sgyouthambassadors.org

Dead line of submission : For both Video and Synopsis, 30 September 2017

We will announce the winner by end of 30 November 2017

Winner group will ---
